INTRODUCTION

On the 348 rolls of this microfilm publication are reproduced the applications submitted for shares of the money that was appropriated for the Eastern Cherokee Indians by the Congress on June 30, 1906. The Eastern Cherokee applications, August 29, 1906-May 26, 1909, are part of the Guion Miller Enrollment Records that are among the records of the U.S. Court of Claims. This publication also includes a general index to Eastern Cherokee applications (two vols.).

History

Before the U.S. Court of Claims was established in 1855 there was no procedure by which claims arising against the U.S. Government could be enforced by suit. Consideration of claims was provided for when the Treasury Department was established in 1789; later acts of the Congress authorized the Department to settle all claims by or against the Government. If a claim was rejected by the Treasury Department, the claimant's only course of action was to appeal directly to the Congress. Petitions to that body for relief had become so numerous by the middle of the 19th century that the Congress was beginning to find it impossible to make the proper and necessary investigations for actions on the claims.

The U.S. Court of Claims was established by an act of February 24, 1855, to hear claims against the United States including those referred to the court by the Congress, based on any law of the Congress, any regulation of an executive department, or any contract with the Government, whether explicit or implied. Under this act the court served only as a factfinding agency, and its conclusions were submitted to the Congress for approval and for the granting of awards. In 1863 the Congress enlarged the court's jurisdiction and gave it authority to render judgments against the Government, with the right of appeal to the Supreme Court. An act of 1925 abolished appeals from the Court of Claims to the Supreme Court and substituted writs of certiorari.

An act approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. 726), gave the Court of Claims jurisdiction over any claim arising under treaty stipulations that the Cherokee Tribe, or any band thereof, might have against the United States and over any claims that the United States might have against any Cherokee Tribe or band. Suit for such a claim was to be instituted within 2 years after the act was approved. As a result, three suits were brought before the court concerning grievances arising out of the treaties:

On May 18, 1905, the court decided in favor of the Eastern Cherokees and instructed the Secretary of the Interior to identify the persons entitled to participate in the distribution of funds for payment of the claims. On June 30, 1906, the Congress appropriated more than $1 million for this purpose. The task of compiling a roll of eligible persons was begun by Guion Miller, special agent of the Interior Department. In a decree of April 29, 1907, the court (1) vacated that part of its earlier decision that had given the Secretary of the Interior responsibility for determining the eligibility of claimants and (2) appointed Miller as a special commissioner of the Court of Claims.

The same decree also provided that the fund was to be distributed to all Eastern and Western Cherokee Indians who were alive on May 28, 1906, who could establish the fact that at the time of the treaties they were members of the Eastern Cherokee Tribe or were descendants of such persons, and that they had not been affiliated with any tribe of Indians other than the Eastern Cherokee or the Cherokee Nation. The decree further provided that claimants should already have applications on file with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, or should file such applications with the special commissioner of the Court of Claims on or before August 31, 1907. Additionally, applications for minors and persons of unsound mind were to be filed by their parents or persons having their care and custody, and applications for persons who had died after May 28, 1906, were to be filed by their children or legal representatives.

In his report of May 28, 1909, Miller stated that 45,847 separate applications had been filed, representing a total of about 90,000 individual claimants, 30,254 of whom were enrolled as entitled to share in the fund--3,203 residing east and 27,051 residing west of the Mississippi River. On June 10, 1909, the court confirmed and approved the roll, submitted by Miller in his report, of Eastern Cherokees who were entitled to a share of the fund except "so much as shall be expected (excepted) to on or before August 30, 1909." After the exceptions had been filed and investigated, Miller submitted a supplemental report and roll to the court on January 5, 1910. In this report he stated that about 11,750 exceptions had been made, that the names of 610 persons (238 east and 372 west of the Mississippi) had been added to the roll, and that the names of 44 persons (5 east and 39 west of the Mississippi) had been stricken from the roll because clerical errors in enrollment had been discovered. Thus the final figure on the total number of persons entitled to share in the fund was 30,820, of which 3,436 persons resided east and 27,384 resided west of the Mississippi River. On March 15, 1910, the court finally decreed that the rolls be approved and that, after certain deductions for expenditures, payments were to be made equally among the Eastern Cherokees who were enrolled. The court also authorized the Secretary of the Treasury to issue a warrant in favor of each person.

In certifying the eligibility of the Cherokees, Miller used earlier census lists and rolls that had been made of the Cherokees by Hester, Chapman, Drennen, and others between 1835 and 1884. Copies of some of these rolls and the indexes to them are filed with the Miller records (filmed as M685). Other enrollment records used by Miller are among the classified subject files of the Bureau and are designated as "33931-11-053 Cherokee Nation."

Records

The applications contain sworn evidences of identity and were filed with the Interior Department's Office of Indian Affairs until April 29, 1907 (the last application was No. 22268), after which the applications were filed directly with the court. The application required each claimant to state fully his or her English and Indian names, residence, age, place of birth, name of husband or wife, name of tribe, and names of children. It further required the English and Indian names of the claimant's parents and grandparents, place of their birth, place of their residence in 1851 if they were living at that time, dates of their death, and a statement as to whether any of them had ever before been enrolled as Indians for annuities or other benefits and, if so, with what tribe. Each claimant was also to furnish the names of all brothers and sisters, with their ages and residences, and the names and residences of all uncles and aunts. Applications were required to be made under oath and to be supported by affidavits of two witnesses who were well acquainted with the applicant. With each application is a card showing final action taken and the reasons therefore. Filed with many of the applications are inquiries concerning the status of the cases, requests for further evidence, protests about unfavorable actions, form letters that had been sent by the special commissioner to the applicants as notices of rejection of their applications and returned by the Post Office Department as unclaimed, affidavits and statements of witnesses, powers of attorney, and last wills and testaments. The applications are arranged by the number assigned at the time the application was received. There are some gaps in the application numbers; these are explained on insert sheets at the appropriate places on the film. The index is arranged alphabetically by name (either English or Indian) of claimant.

Many of the files contain a cross-reference card to other applications. This cross-reference card often refers to the EX file, the report on exceptions filed by Miller on January 5, 1910.

That I am 73 years of age. I am acquainted with John Mann; I am his father's sister. I have filed application myself #4492. John Mann claims through his father. His mother is a white woman. I and John Mann go back to the same source for our Cherokee ancestry. I claim my Indian descent through my mother; my father was a white man. My mother's mother claimed Indian. All of my other grandparents were white. My grandmother was Nancy Smith, maiden name Nally. My mother's name was Betsy Smith and she married it was. My mother was born in N. C. but I don't know what part it was in the eastern part of N. C. My grandmother was from N. C. and came to Habersham Co., Ga. My mother was married and had a family when we came to Georgia, about fifty or sixty years ago. I was about eight or ten years of age at that time. I nor my mother nor grandmother were never on any roll that I know of. None of us never lived with the Indians as members of the tribe that I ever knew of. I am recognized as a white woman in the community. Len, Jim, Billy and Bass Smith were my mother's brothers. Never heard of my mother or her mother ever receiving any money from the government.

App. #7920.

January 23, 1908.

John Mann,

Jasper, Ga.

Sir:-

You have on file in this office application #7920 for a share of the money appropriated for the Eastern Cherokee Indians, in which you state you claim through Nancy Nalley, whom you say was a Cherokee Indian, she being your great grandmother.

I beg to advise that I cannot find the name of Nancy Nalley on the roll of 1835. Neither can I find the names of any of your ancestors who are supposed to be descendants of Nancy Nalley on the roll of 1835 or 1851. If your great grandmother, Nancy Nalley, was an Indian, why was she not enrolled in 1835? Was she a full-blood Indian, or what degree of blood relationship did she bear to a full-blood Cherokee Indian? Were any of your ancestors ever held as slaves by the Cherokee Indians or by white people? Do you know of any reason why your ancestors were not enrolled in 1851--that is, those who were living at that time and claimed Indian blood?

Please give the history of your family, starting with your full-blood Indian ancestor, and tracing carefully down to yourself.

Respectfully,

ASD/AIL

Special Commissioner.

COURT OF CLAIMS
EASTERN CHEROKEES.
JUN 29 1909
No. 7909

R. F. D # 2, Crumpler, N. C.

June 26th, 1909.

The Clerk of the Court of Claims,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:-

*from Union Miller
Special Commissioner*
a letter
Replying to ~~your~~ of 10th inst, will say that I want to know the cause why my claim No. 7959 for participation in the fund arising from the judgment of the Court of Claims of May 28th, 1906, in favor of the Eastern Cherokees was rejected and the nature of the rejections, also what does the Court of Claims mean by the exceptions to the rejections?

It seems that the Court of Claims is inclined to give us another chance to participate in this fund by allowing us a chance to file our exceptions to the rejection on or by the 30th day of August 1909.

Please write me fully about this matter and greatly oblige.

Respectfully,

Daniel Floyd Blevins

Robert H. Maney,

North Carolina.

Sir:-

Replying to your letter of June 20, 1907, you are advised that it will not be necessary for you to file a supplemental application blank for your children, as they have already filed separate applications.

You are further advised that the applications have not been taken up for final consideration as the Court of Claims in its order of April 29, 1907, an abstract of which is herewith inclosed, has extended the time for the filing of applications to August 31, 1907, and until the applications have all been filed it will be impossible to give final consideration to any of them.

As there are already over 26,000 applications on file and the claimants are widely scattered through the United States, it will necessarily take considerable time to have all of these cases adjudicated, and until they are so determined no money can be distributed.

Very respectfully,

Dear sir:-

Please find enclosed $.25 for which please send us
Copy of Eastern Cherokee Rolls.

Please make a record in your office that W.L. Moore, of Nowata, Okla. is the guardian of the minor children enrolled after their father Daniel R. Coody, # 8282, Eastern Cherokee Roll, as follows:-

~~XXXXXX~~
~~XX~~
Lila Coody, Sallie Coody,
Bettie Coody, Robert Coody, and Susie Coody; so that any future correspondence in the above cases may be had direct with me.

Charles Coody is dead; Daniel R. Coody is dead. Mike Headrick the husband of Alice Coody is acting as admr. these dead estates; but he will leave this state as soon as the land of these estates shall be sold;
to reside permanently in Oregon; so I will ask at this time if I as guardian of these minors will draw the shares due to Daniel R. Coody and to Charles Coody and distribute same; or will it be necessary that I succeed Mike Headrick as admr. of these estates?

Yours truly

W.L. Moore, Guardian.
